BEHAVIOR

Course Code : VACOB

Duration : 32HRS

ORGANISATIONAL BEHAVIOUR

2017-18

ABOUT THE COURSE:

All organizations, be the business, educational or government, are social systems. They are run by people. The functioning of an organization depend upon how people work or behave in the organization. Human behaviour in organizations is highly unpredictable. It is unpredictable because it arises from people's deep-seated needs and value systems. However, it can be partially understood in terms of the framework of behavioral science, management and other disciplines. There is no idealistic solution to organizational problems. All that can be done is to increase our understanding and skills so that human relations at work can be enhanced.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

A start-up is an entrepreneurial experiment and a very small beginning enterprise that provides a space for self-realization, an opportunity to develop and implement unusual and risky ideas, an unparalleled satisfaction of existing needs and discovery of new needs. Start-ups contain the potential for exceptional growth but also unforeseen and repeated failures. They are a living laboratory to explore the emergence and maturation of an enterprise. Rapid growth, experimenting with ideas that would be too courageous for ordinary companies, high returns and quick feedback attract not only businesspeople but also researchers, to reveal and explain the functioning and perilous places of this relatively new business phenomenon. The advancement, success and survival of the start-up usually depends on the quality of its business model, team and business strategy.
